Dear Mrs. Rubinstein:

As I told you in my cable a few weeks ago, I recently learned of the bequest that Arthur Rubinstein made to the Library of Congress; I joined the Library last year and this had not come to my attention.

I am writing to express our great interest in examining the archives, and I am proposing that I arrange a trip to Paris in November to consult with you. The Library, as you can well imagine, has important collections that will be enhanced by the materials left to us by your late husband.

If it would be convenient for you, I suggest that I come to Paris for several days in the period November 8-21. Perhaps you would prefer that I telephone you to discuss this; please do let me know if that is the case.

With kind regards, and with apologies from the Library for not having written much earlier.

Sincerely,

James W. Pruett
