MUSIC DIVISION

December 3, 1992

Dear Mme Rubinstein:

It was a pleasant surprise to speak with you recently, and to learn of the intense interest in Spain in archival resources for the life of Maestro Rubinstein.

Since we spoke, Alicia Morena has visited the Music Division; unfortunately, I was away on the day she came. My colleagues showed her the collection and described how we have arranged the materials. Our methods of organization appear to match those of the Foundation. In return, we learned about the Albeniz Foundation and their plans for the future. As is the Albeniz Foundation, the Library of Congress is increasingly interested in developing the technology for preserving and disseminating information about our resources. I look forward to hearing from Paloma O'Shea about how we can cooperate with the Albeniz Foundation.

I do hope that you will include a visit to Washington during your trip to New York later this month. It would be a great pleasure to have you come to the Library. I plan to be away from the Library for a Christmas holiday, December 21-28, but I recall that your visit to the States is around December 15.

With kind regards,

Sincerely,

James W. Pruett
