Mr. David Rubinstein
25/5 Hamavdil Street
Ramat-Gan, Israel

Dear Mr. Rubinstein,

I just received your letter from Ramat-Gan, and hasten to answer it. I read with interest what you wrote me about your family, and especially about your son who suffers an illness I do not know anything about. I am certainly sorry that you have had to make big sacrifices for his illness, but, unfortunately, I cannot be of any help to you. I have quite a few members of my own family to support, besides other institutions which depend on me, and it would be impossible to take up any other committments.

As far as I know, there are governmental agencies which usually take care of cases like the one you write about. I hope they might be of some help to you.

Yours sincerely,

Arthur Rubinstein
